

Without Satellite Radio and its traffic report I would be late for work atleast 4 days every month and not to mention contribute more to and existing traffic jam. The other sources of information of this kind are laughable at best.